"A Reflection on Being a Youth in the Catholic Church"

As a young person in the Catholic Church, my journey has been one of self-discovery, growth, and a deep understanding of faith. The Catholic Church has provided me with a sense of purpose and a framework for moral decision-making, which has been invaluable in navigating the complexities of today's society.

Throughout my experiences, I have found comfort and solace in the rituals and traditions of the Church. Attending Mass, singing in the choir, participating in various church activities, and receiving the sacraments have been some of the most transformative moments that have strengthened my spiritual connection.

The sense of community within the Church has been a strong source of support and the friendships I've forged along the way have been a reflection of the love and fellowship that Christ taught us. The Catholic Church's response to social issues and its involvement in various global matters have also shaped my worldview. I have been especially inspired by the Church's commitment to social justice, care for the poor, and advocacy for human dignity.

One of the most significant challenges I have faced has been reconciling my faith with the complexities and contradictions of the world around me. In a rapidly changing society, I have encountered several questions and doubts that have pushed me to seek deeper answers and a more profound personal relationship with God.

This ongoing journey of faith has led me to recognise the beauty of embracing doubt as an invitation to seek truth and grow in my understanding of God's plan for my life.

Being a young Catholic today also comes with the responsibility of being a witness to my faith. This means striving to live authentically, demonstrating the love and teachings of Jesus through my actions and words. I am called to be the salt of the earth and a light of the world, reflecting the values of mercy, forgiveness, and compassion in my interactions with others. And as I continue on this journey, I am grateful for the guidance of my faith, the support of the Catholic community, and the opportunity to be a witness to God's love in today's society. Lord, may Your will be done in my life in all things. I pray that I may always welcome You into the darkest challenges of my life and that I will keep my eyes fixed upon You and Your perfect plan. May I never give in to fear but allow You to dispel that fear with Your grace. Jesus, I trust in You.

Gospel Today

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 14:22-33

The boat carrying the disciples was a few miles out to sea when Jesus, walking on the water, came toward them. Seeing they were frightened Jesus said, "Take courage, it is I, do not be afraid." Matthew 14:27 When Peter showed faith and walked toward Jesus on the water, his faith faltered and he began to sink, crying out to Jesus to save him.

Jesus saw how hard it was for His disciples to keep their faith even though they witnessed first hand His miracles. Jesus knows it is also hard for us to not lose faith. If you begin to doubt, repeat the words of Jesus... "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" Matthew 14:31
Have you ever heard anyone say this before?

"More Reflections on Being a Youth in the Catholic Church"

Greetings, everyone! I'm Shaini, and I'm thrilled to share my incredible experience at the World Youth Day 2023 event held in Adelaide. This event proved to be a unique and meaningful journey, filled with insightful workshops and uplifting moments. Kicking off the event was the empowering Power Up workshop, led by Gianna. It encouraged us to reflect on our life's purpose, mission, and personal values essential for leading a meaningful life. We delved into ways to overcome obstacles and achieve our goals, gaining valuable insights along the way. Throughout the event, there were various workshops like "Finding Hope in Dark Places", "Our Faith Leaders", "Into the Deep", "Reclaiming our Earthiness", "Where on Earth is good" and "Vinnies Youth," all of which offered diverse perspectives and knowledge. Personally, I chose the "Together on the Way" workshop, which taught me the importance of pushing my boundaries and supporting others in need and how listening to the stories of others allows us to see the world from a different perspective. Meeting the archbishop was truly inspiring, as he emphasized the significance of keeping the fire in our hearts alive. His words left a profound impact on all of us. As for refreshments, we indulged in delicious snacks like cookies, Doritos, fruits, and coffee, adding to the joyous atmosphere. I even won some chocolates, a book, and an adorable smiling monkey doll that I absolutely adore. The event provided ample opportunities to connect with fellow attendees, and the dinner was a delightful affair. The food was so delicious and left our tummies happily satisfied.

However, the real highlight of the event was the concert, where passionate young individuals came together to sing worship songs with great enthusiasm. Leading the concert was the band, "Guss and Iggy," whose impressive worship songs left a lasting impression on me. I wholeheartedly recommend checking out their music! In conclusion, the World Youth Day 2023 event was a beautiful gathering that united youth and young adults in prayer, worship, and celebration of our Catholic faith. It provided a memorable platform to learn, grow, and connect with like-minded individuals from all walks of life. By Shaini Gonsalves.

From Brandon Vu: World Youth Day, what is World Youth Day? this is the question I asked myself when Preca Leader John told me that there is a local World Youth Day in Adelaide. When Fr Lancy called me yesterday to tell you about my experience of World Youth Day, I panic. A reason I panic was because I was going to give an experience the next day without practice but it was mainly because I don't know what World Youth Day is about. I have heard about it from previous World Youth Days such as the one that happened in 2019 and honestly thought it was boring. Why I thought it was boring?, because I was shown a video of what they did in 2019 such as workshops and a live concert music. When John asked me if I was going, I originally was going to say no, however I challenge myself to go this event so I yes. Honestly I am so glad that I said yes, there were so many young Catholics like me going to this event with God uniting us all. The Workshops were amazing and the live concert was breath taking. As a young Catholic in Australia, it is very difficult as not many people that you meet in your day to day life are not Christians. Going to an event like this reassures me that I am not a young Adult practising being a Catholic alone. It is such an amazing feeling knowing that God was present in room and with us young people as we were swaying each other with our hands around each other shoulders singing "10,000 reasons" performed by the amazing musicians there. One thing I have learnt from this is that you can watch or listen to something, for my case watching World Youth Day 2019, but when you experience it yourself it's such a powerful experience that forever changes your views on that idea.

Quote of the Week

"Fear not because God is with you." St Padre Pio
