Exalted Through Humility

Sometimes people's words inspire us, but more often it is the witness they give with their actions that inspires. Additionally, when someone's words do not match up with their actions, they are seen as hypocrites. Jesus is very hard on the scribes and the Pharisees for this reason. "For they preach but they do not practice." They spoke about the Law of God, taught it in a detailed way, but they did not truly practice God's Law as it was intended to be practiced. Jesus goes on to give a list of the ways that these religious leaders failed to live the laws of God. They failed in their charity and encouragement of others, they did everything for public praise and for show, and they sought out honours and meaningless titles. As a result, they cared little for others and cared much about themselves.

At the heart of Jesus' criticism of the scribes and Pharisees was their tendency to exalt themselves in the eyes of others. Jesus corrects this tendency by saying that "the greatest among you must be your servant," and that "whoever humbles himself will be exalted." Therefore, if you wish to be truly great and if you wish to be exalted by God, you must serve with the deepest humility.

Humility begins by seeing yourself in the light of truth. How does God see you? The humble soul seeks to discover this insight by using the eyes of Christ to look at their own soul. It would be truly humbling if we could see ourselves in the full light of the truth. But too often we take on a false image of ourselves and look at our lives through a lens of self-righteousness. We tend to quickly defend our actions, justifying the sins we commit and failing to acknowledge our weaknesses.

What would you see if you looked at yourself with humility? One glaring thing you will see is your sin. Our lives are filled with sin. Sometimes they are serious sins, and at other times less serious, but our lives are undoubtedly filled with sins and imperfections. If we are blind to those sins, then we lack the necessary humility we need to see ourselves in the light of truth.

The virtue of humility will also take us a step further than seeing our sins clearly. It will also help us to see our need for God's grace in order to change, to love, and to serve God and others. We cannot love by our own efforts. It is impossible. The love of charity is only possible when it is God Who lives in us and acts through us. God and God alone is able to work true charity through our actions. Knowing and believing this humble truth is the only way to open the door to that grace.

Reflect, today, upon the humility that you need in order to truly love. When you love others with the pure love of God, you will discover within yourself a need to serve. You will see others as objects of your love. You will discover a burning desire to help them, forgive them, be gentle and merciful to them, and to do all you can to help them discover the truth of their own lives so they will, in turn, humbly turn to God. The scribes and Pharisees failed miserably at this mission, and that is one of the reasons that Jesus used them as an example. Do not follow their lead. Seek to take the opposite approach. Seek humility. Seek the truth. If you do, God will use you in powerful ways and will exalt you on high.

Most humble Lord, You are exalted above all because You were humble beyond all. You knew the truth of Who You are and embraced that truth with all Your might. Please give me Your eyes to see myself as You see me, so that in Your humble gaze, I will see my sin, repent wholeheartedly, and turn to You as the source of all my love. Jesus, I trust in You.

We pray for the soul of Sr Edoarda Lo Curcio FSP, who died in Italy on 27th October. She was an iconic figure in Adelaide at Pauline Books & Media and also for her work in the Italian Community. Fr Michael Romero has advised there will be a Memorial Mass for Sr Edoarda on Friday, 10th November at 7.00pm in English & Italian at Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, Payneham. We offer our prayerful sympathy to the Daughters of St Paul. Please remember her in your Masses & prayers. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord, may she rest in peace. †

Welcome Back Father Lancy!!

We warmly welcome back Father Lancy this week and look forward to hearing all about his trip away.

Thank you to Father Santhosh for looking after the needs of the parish while Father Lancy was away.

Centenary of Sacred Heart Church: Blessed and Opened 1924

Next meeting will be on Wednesday 15th November @ 6:30pm in the SHC Hall.

"Sunday, November 9th, will surely remain for the parishioners of Brompton, a day to be long remembered, for on that day of cloudless sunshine, the event for which every heart had been longing for so many years, became at last an accomplished fact, & the magnificent church erected by the Sacred Heart Fathers was blessed and opened by His Grace, the Archbishop of Adelaide, Most Rev R. W. Spence, O.P." A committee of current parishioners has been formed recently to plan & coordinate appropriate ways in which this centenary can be celebrated next year. To this end, we would be keen to hear from former parishioners of Sacred Heart Parish who would like to share their memories over the next twelve months of earlier days in this community and be involved in the celebrations to be planned. Please contact either Mary Hemmings on 0417 871 904 or Peter Oswald on 0402 841 270 or shparish@shphf.com.au to share your memories or register your interest in being involved in activities in the year ahead.

This week we continue to learn more about the Congregation of Holy Cross to which Fathers Lancy and Santhosh belong. We will be continuing these articles until the Feast of the Sacred Heart on 7th June 2024, to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of the entry of its founder, Blessed Basile Moreau, into eternal life.

Community Life: This charism of restoration for Christian renewal is also incarnated in community life. Institutional religious life, as a sign, seeks to anticipate the reconciliation, the collaboration and the communion desired by human beings. Basile Moreau was a pioneer when he founded a congregation that resembled no other of his time. He 4 called together priests, brothers, and sisters of Holy Cross who were to live and work together on an equal footing. The spirit of union and fraternity was to be the mark of this association. The source of the Founder's concern that the union of hearts was to assure this unique style of community. "Here, notwithstanding differences of temperament and talent, the inequality of means, and differences of vocation and obedience, the one aim of the glory of God and the salvation of souls inspires almost all the members and gives rise to a oneness of effort which tends towards that more perfect union of hearts which constitutes its bond and strength" (CL 14). Even today, despite the forced separation of the sisters' society from the congregation, the fact of being a religious family of three distinct societies united in equality is the most specific element in relation to other religious communities composed of several branches. Father Moreau endowed his foundation with a mystic intention: the union of hearts within the Holy Family of Nazareth is an example. The three societies would form a single family, the Family of Holy Cross: within these societies there would be established an effective collaboration in mission. His perspective was that of a community that was "the work of each and everyone and whose members are individually and collectively responsible for it" (CL 17). Holy Cross men and women religious are called to live out this evangelical call to union and to be conscious that they are members, each and everyone, in Jesus Christ, as the branches are to the vine. Wherever they may be, the lived union of hearts is at the center of their life in community, their efforts, and their mission. The world needs this union of hearts to show that hope lives and that another world is possible.

Parish Fundraising...the story so far!

We have raised a total amount of $27,448. This amount has come via funds raised from some very generous donations, the carparking for soccer, bottle refunds, our Christmas Carol night, May Coffee Circles and the Parish Dinner and Bake Sale.

Funds from the Carparking alone continues to raise a significant amount each time there is a Soccer Game at Cooper's Stadium and we hope to keep this going!

Our fundraising target is to raise $40,000 by the end of the year.
