Windows to your Soul

Our five senses can be said to be a window to our souls. With our senses we perceive the world around us, take it into our minds and heart, and engage it according to the decisions we make. Several of the Church Fathers say that the five wise virgins in today's parable represent those who use their five senses in accord with God's will, whereas the five foolish virgins are those who indulge their five senses in a life of sin.

Interestingly, Saint John of the Cross teaches that the highest form of communication with God takes place when our five senses are silenced and all that we have learned through them is darkened so that God can communicate to us in a direct and spiritual way. But until we reach that level of spiritual perfection, accomplished by various purifications of our soul, we must rely upon our senses as a source of knowledge, especially our knowledge of God.

With our eyes we are called to perceive the beauty of God's presence within creation, especially in other people. With our ears we hear the Word of God proclaimed that then resonates within us, inspiring the gift of faith. Our senses of smell, taste and touch will also teach us in various ways, leading us either to the delights of the Kingdom of God, or to the indulgences of the fallen world.

If the five wise virgins represent the holy use of the five senses, then we must see the connection between them and the oil for their lamps. Many Church Fathers see the oil as a symbol of good works, or charity. Charity is necessary for the attainment of Heaven, for the meeting of the Bridegroom when He shows up at an unexpected time. The person who engages in charity is one who uses the natural gifts given by God for His glory. Their five senses are constantly seeking ways to glorify God and to accomplish His holy will.

The five senses can also easily lead us to the selfish pursuit of fleshly pleasures. When this happens, the oil of charity runs dry within us and we are unprepared for the moment of our death, when the Bridegroom returns. Think about yourself being those wise or foolish virgins by considering how you use your five senses. What do you look at regularly with your eyes? Do you seek out the presence of God in our world? Do you see Him in the poor, the vulnerable, the lonely, and the needy? Or do you look at the many evils all around you and become infatuated with them, allowing yourself to be drawn into their practices?

With your ears, do you listen attentively to the Word of God? Or do you find yourself drawn to the world of gossip, detraction and other sinful words that are spoken? Do you indulge your senses of touch, smell and taste, choosing an excess of pleasure, becoming inordinately attached? Or do you strive for temperance and self-control, denying yourself unhealthy and sinful pleasures?

Reflect, today, upon the natural powers of your own soul, especially the gift of your five senses. As you do, examine the ways you use them, what you look at, listen to, and indulge in. Your senses are but a window to your soul and the first way through which God speaks to you and enters your heart. Keep guard of your senses, and only allow the good things of Heaven to enter in. Doing so will produce the oil of charity within and will enable you to be perpetually ready for the coming of our Lord.

Lord of perfect charity, You desire to speak to me and reveal Yourself to me in many ways. I pray that I will always perceive You with my eyes and ears, and use all of my five senses for Your glory. Please free me from every inordinate and unhealthy attachment so that I am free to completely attach myself to You. Jesus, I trust in You.

Centenary of Sacred Heart Church: Blessed and Opened 1924

Next meeting will be on Wednesday 15th November @ 6:30pm in the SHC Hall.

"Sunday, November 9th, will surely remain for the parishioners of Brompton, a day to be long remembered, for on that day of cloudless sunshine, the event for which every heart had been longing for so many years, became at last an accomplished fact, & the magnificent church erected by the Sacred Heart Fathers was blessed and opened by His Grace, the Archbishop of Adelaide, Most Rev R. W. Spence, O.P." A committee of current parishioners has been formed recently to plan & coordinate appropriate ways in which this centenary can be celebrated next year. To this end, we would be keen to hear from former parishioners of Sacred Heart Parish who would like to share their memories over the next twelve months of earlier days in this community and be involved in the celebrations to be planned. Please contact either Mary Hemmings on 0417 871 904 or Peter Oswald on 0402 841 270 or shparish@shphf.com.au to share your memories or register your interest in being involved in activities in the year ahead.

Baptism

We welcome into our faith Community

Delila Mia Lauren Passerini and Hudson Giuseppe Brown,

who will celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism
this weekend within our
Sacred Heart Hindmarsh—Findon Parish

Please keep Delila, Hudson and their families in your prayers.

This week we continue to learn more about the Congregation of Holy Cross to which Fathers Lancy and Santhosh belong. We will be continuing these articles until the Feast of the Sacred Heart on 7th June 2024, to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of the entry of its founder, Blessed Basile Moreau, into eternal life.

A CHARISM FOR TODAY Father Moreau's firmly rooted life in the society and the Church of his time, and his determination to bring about a renewal capable of regenerating them, remain for us part of the heritage he bequeathed to us. This should spur us on to reaffirm our missionary thrust in places where we live and work. We must re-capture the charism of Holy Cross in our present-day context, which in many ways is similar to the one known by our Founder: the crisis of religion, the climate of dechristianization, the growth of religious indifference and agnosticism, and the spread of violence and injustice are an urgent call for meaningful interventions. We are called to re-evangelize and present the Christian faith in a new way. We must restore its credibility in our cultures. We must find concrete ways to rebuild our societies. The charism of Holy Cross is still contemporary and urgent: to renew the Christian faith, to regenerate society, to "bring about better times" by a constant response to the most pressing needs of the Church and society.

Thank you
