God is Speaking

Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Mark 4:38-39

Do you desire to hear God speak to you? The most common way this happens is through prayerful meditation on the Gospels. Over the centuries, the saints have prayerfully pondered the Gospels and have offered various insights on the stories and our Lord's actions. Their insights are not primarily an intellectual exercise. Rather, they are first an exercise of prayer and meditation, revealing that the Scriptures have various layers of depth and meaning.

One Church Father, Saint Bede, explains from his prayerful pondering of today's Gospel passage that the boat in which Jesus crossed the sea represents the Cross by which safe passage is obtained to arrive at the shores of Heaven. The other boats that followed represent those who have faith in the Cross of Christ and follow. Though they suffer the waves of temptation and hardship, they press on, relying upon the saving power of the Cross. Jesus being asleep represents His sleep of death, and His waking represents His resurrection. The pleas of the disciples represent our need to turn to Jesus during the storms and temptations of life. The rebuke of the waves and the ensuing calm reveal the grace won by His death and resurrection, which is able to silence the demons and disordered passions. The fear that the disciples encountered points to our own fear that results from a lack of faith and trust in God.

God is able to speak these and many other truths to us through His actions and words contained in the Scriptures. There is no limit to the depth and meaning we can receive through His holy Word. Therefore, though it is useful to reflect upon the saints' various interpretations of the Gospels, it is also very important to reflect upon these passages ourselves, so as to allow our Lord to reveal to us the message we need to hear.

Reflect, today, upon this Gospel scene. Try to find time to slowly read today's Gospel from beginning to end. Read a sentence and then close your eyes and try to imagine it. See Jesus entering the boat. Ponder the boat being an image of the Cross. See the sea as the many evils within this world. Consider the fear the disciples encountered during the storm. See yourself in that boat, waking our Lord. Listen to Him silence the waves and restore peace. Hear Him say to you about your own struggles in life: "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" As you prayerfully meditate upon this and other Gospel passages, know that God will speak to you and reveal to you the meaning that He wishes to communicate to you today.

My sleeping Lord, as I endure the many storms of life, may I always have faith in the saving power of Your Cross and Resurrection. May I always call upon You to calm the storms and hear You speak to me the many truths I need to hear. Jesus, I trust in You.

You can make an impact as a volunteer across one of the Calvary hospitals including the Mary Potter Hospice, as there are a number of volunteers 'patient support' positions available. These roles provide valuable support to patients, visitors, and staff – enhancing the service provided by Calvary to the community.

The benefits of volunteering just a few hours a week are many. You'll feel a heightened sense of wellbeing, purpose, and appreciation, while those you support will be forever grateful.

If you like spending time in service for others and have a positive approach for life; if you're kind, sensitive, responsible, have a sense of humour, then we would love to hear from you!

SACRED HEART CHURCH
1924 - 2024

Centenary Year

Sunday 24th November 2024, 9.30am Mass

Sacred Heart Church – 252 Port Road, Hindmarsh

Eucharistic Celebration by Archbishop Patrick O'Regan

[Note: No 9am Mass at SHC or 11am Mass at OLM]

- + Missionaries of the Sacred Heart came to Australia in 1882.
- + The MSC began ministry with a Mass on January 20, 1914 in Brompton.
- + A property was purchased in early 1916 at 252 Port Road, Hindmarsh. It was a site of an old tannery, where most of the tannery buildings had been demolished with the exception of a skin-drying shed.
- + It was decided to convert this building into a temporary church-hall and to begin construction of a presbytery on the site.
- + The construction of the new church began in 1924.
- + The Church was blessed and opened by Archbishop Spence on 9th November 1924
- + The sisters of St Joseph were the first to establish a school in what became the parish of Hindmarsh
- + In 1928 the school relocated to Grange Road in West Hindmarsh when the parish purchased land and built 5 classrooms. This became the parish office and chapel, and it has some exceptionally beautiful stained glass windows still to this day.
- + On 26th March 1950 in an official ceremony by Bishop Thomas McCabe the Church changed its name from St Savior (later spelt Saviour) to Sacred Heart Church.
- + The church and its presbytery were locally heritage listed by the council on 12 September 2017.
